Ken McLachlin

Performing as 'macsmusic', Ken McLachlin is a folk roots musician, singer-songwriter, Indie recording artist & award winning chili maker from Point Edward, Ontario, Canada.

A solo, acoustic guitar musician, Ken's candid lyrics speak to his real life experiences, emotional reflections, historic and, some would say, tongue-in-cheek observations.

Compared to the song writing stylings of Gord Lightfoot, Ken loves to weave lyrical stories, not unlike that of the late Canadian folk singer-songwriter Stan Rogers, which effortlessly guide a listener along its intended path.

Ken's second and most recent solo album, 'Folk From Home' (CeeJay Records, 2024) features eight songs that capture elements of the southwestern Ontario, Bluewater area that he has called home all his life.

Ken's first solo EP album, 'Been There, Done That' (CeeJay Records, 2021) is an album of six songs, from a guy's perspective, addressing various stages of life and it's memorable ups and downs.

'Folk From Home' and 'Been There, Done That' both have an acoustic, rootsy feel and are available on-line at Bandcamp.com, on most streaming platforms, and also for purchase at Ken's shows.
